

TOP 10 THINGS ELS WANTS YOU TO KNOW

1

Registration with Engagement, Leadership, and Service is an annual process. Make sure to re-register so you don't lose student organization privileges.

2

Keep your Involvement Network roster up to date. This is how Campus Reservations, Events & Technical Services systems give access to members to make reservations on behalf of your organization.

3

Review your constitution and make adjustments if organization practices are not aligned.

4

Ensure there are checks and balances when it comes to organization funds.

5

Fundraising/collection request forms must be submitted to Engagement, Leadership, and Service at least one week prior to the event to ensure compliance with the Solicitation Policy.

6

Use of University trademarks for promotion or merchandise requires approval by the Office of Trademarks & Licensing. Any product or item for internal usage that uses a University of Georgia mark must be produced by an approved, licensed vendor.

7

Student Government Association facilitates Small Club Allocations for student organizations to receive financial assistance for programs and travel.

8

If members need space to do work and/or have small meetings, tables and cubicles in Engagement, Leadership, and Service are available to all registered student organizations on a first-come, first-served basis.

9

Involvement Ambassadors are available for 30-minute coaching sessions.

10

Engagement, Leadership, and Servicestaff are available for drop-in advising.
