

Leadership UGA®

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a full-time 1st year, 2nd year, or transfer student at UGA.
- Demonstrate interest and commitment to growing as a leader.
- Able to attend all weekly meetings on Thursdays from 6:30 – 8 PM (beginning February 2nd and concluding on April 27th).

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Meet and work alongside other UGA students who share similar interests and passions for leadership and making a positive impact in the local and state communities.
- Learn about yourself and who you are as a leader, as well as how to lead with others.
- Participate in meaningful opportunities to learn more about challenges and opportunities facing both Georgia and Athens, and how leaders are creating innovative solutions to address them throughout the state and locally.

PROGRAM TRACKS

For 2022-2023, Leadership UGA will offer one program track during the Spring semester. Please see below for more information about our current program track offering.

Leadership UGA: Emerging Leaders

- Who: Any first-year, second-year, or transfer full-time UGA student who has never participated in Leadership UGA
- When: Leadership UGA: Emerging Leaders will meet every Thursday evening from 6:30-8:00pm for 10-weeks. The program is offered in both Fall and Spring semesters.
- Where: Spring 2023 meetings will take place in-person in the Tate Student Center.
- What: The Emerging Leaders track of Leadership UGA is specifically designed for students who are interested in learning more about their own personal leadership development, and how to lead well with others. This program focuses on giving students the skills and opportunities to grow personally and professionally, and prepare to be a leader in the UGA and Athens communities in the future. Students who participate in this program will have a chance to meet and network with other UGA first-year students, older UGA student leaders, and various Athens community leaders. Each week, professional UGA staff members will facilitate workshops and activities. After completion of the Leadership UGA: Emerging Leaders program students will have the skills and tools to be an active member of the UGA community.
- How: Sign-up on the Involvement Network.
